YOUNG MAN, with $5 in your pocket, we'll give you $5.00 worth of Shoes or your $5.00 back. Is that plain? No; there's a whole to wriggle out of, if we wanted to wriggle. We'll make it plainer yet: you shall be the judge of $5.00 worth. We want the job of covering the feet of all those young men (or old men) we see who pay enough for their shoes to be well shod, but who seem to fall short of it. We have all our new styles of Johnston & Murphy make of $5.00 Shoes—and they are beauties. One of our windows is full of these $5.00 values.

A surprise.

We were greatly surprised this morning to find that summer lap dresses were so cheap, at this season of the year, but one of the best assortments of them ever brought to town is at the West Texas Saddlery Co., at prices from 30 cents up.

There is plenty of water in the Rio Grande river in the vicinity of the T. P. shops. The river bank was partially fortified, prior to the arrival of the high water, but not enough to change the cause of the river as was expected. The water has succeeded in covering a number of acres of land in that vicinity, and another rise will cover a great deal more. It is the intention of the company, however, to proceed with the work of strengthening the river bank as soon as the flood is over.

CITY COUNCIL.

Council Attends to Routine Business and Raises Dick Blacker's Wages.

The city council met last night at 8 o'clock in regular session, at the county court room, with all present.

The minutes of several past meetings were read and approved. The city clerk read his report on building permits issued in the month of March, there being 26 permits at one dollar each, of which the city received three-fourths and the clerk the other portion.

Alderman Burton then presented a petition from the T. & P. company asking for a right of way for an eight degree curve switch to join the G. H. road. The matter was laid over until the next meeting, when the council proposes to grant the franchise provided a flagman is put at the Myrtle street crossing.

Mr. Clifford then reported the following bills:

Sewer department.....$85.50

Street department.....68.24

Tribune.....33.30

Election bills.....33.30

Kemp's and Patterson's expenses to San Antonio.....46.90

Total.....$297.94

The creation of a frame shed on her property was granted.

Mr. Brunner, who was detailed at the last meeting to report as to the advisability of placing several new fire-alarm plugs be put in. He also called the attention of the council to the condition of the road to the smelter; this matter was referred to the street commissioner.

A letter was read from the fire department asking the council to grant them one hundred dollars to defray the expenses of sending delegates to the state convention. The amount was granted and warrants ordered drawn.

A communication from the assessor and collector was then read, asking the council to appoint a committee to check his accounts so as to relieve his old bondsmen. The matter was referred to the mayor with power to act.

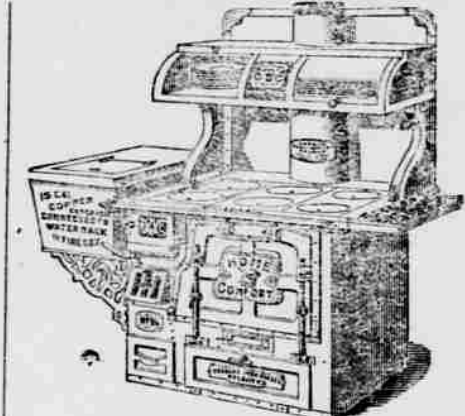

A. G. Hollen sent in a letter offering to sell the council a thousand souvenir books; the letter was placed on file.

J. A. Eddy offered to pay the costs of a drain ditch between the White Oaks yards and the G. H., if the council would order it done. The matter was referred to the city attorney.

The old petition of J. A. Eddy asking for the return of the ten thousand dollars deposited with the city was read, and denied. The council held that the contract should be carried out, and that the money should not be returned until the hundred miles had been completed.

The official bonds of J. H. Smith, C. W. Fessett, and Geo. Wimberly were presented and approved. The clerk reported that all the newly elected officers had been duly qualified and installed.

Alderman Burton recommended that the salary of the city jailer, Dick Blacker, be raised from $55 to $75, the latter being the amount received by

It is believed that the money could be raised in town to call out the big band of forty men with a fine concert program tomorrow night in the plaza. The visitors have often heard of El Paso's fine band, which has more than a state-reputation, and it would be a treat for the visitors. There certainly ought to be fifty men in town who will put up a dollar, especially as every cent of the money will be spent right here.

The Teachers' Convention.

The teachers' convention opened this morning at 10 o'clock in the district court room with about four hundred people present. The opening invocation was offered by Rev. J. T. French, after which an address of welcome was delivered by Prof. Putnam, who spoke in part as follows:

"There is no need for us to tell you that you are welcome. Our little city is a long way off from the center of this great state, and one does not have to go far from here to get out of the state, in fact, out of the United States. It is a long way out here, and we appreciate your gathering. This city is rather peculiar in many respects, especially in the mode of living, for here the greater part of the population take their meals at restaurants, and are not brought up with the custom of cooking at home. I extend in the name of the citizens of this city a hearty and very hearty welcome.

"This association has always been my one great interest, in fact I suggested its name, and was among the first mothers to meet at a convention. I am exceedingly glad you all are so deeply interested in this association. And let me state again your welcome and we shall do all in our power to assist you and see that you have a pleasant stay in our city."

G. W. Hoffman, superintendent of the schools in El Paso county, also delivered an address of welcome in which he said:

"You did not see much of the fertile country between here and your homes, for you passed the barren deserts in the day and our fertile valley at night. Our schools are not up to the standard, for we have a mixed population throughout our section, but we are laboring along and are steadily advancing. We find that the Mexican children are obedient, faithful scholars, although a great many come to us without a knowledge of the English language.

"As Prof. Putnam has stated before, you are welcome in our city, and we not only wish you to see this city but a portion of our sister city over the river. You, the teachers, have the minds of our coming generation in your hands, and it is you who mold the minds of the merchant, the lawyer, the mechanic and all others. I hope you will all have an enjoyable time and will go home with a kind remembrance of this city."

W. C. Willis responded to the address of welcome in a brief speech, as follows:

"I desire to say that a hundred open gates could not give us more hearty welcome, than has the city of El Paso, and I wish you could see the grateful hearts of the people of this city, who are so glad to have you here. We have the humblest way in search of truth, we come for that great jewel of truth, and that other one, knowledge. We strive for that reward that is neither gold nor silver, nor transient, but a reward higher than these. Our path is not always smooth, and the teacher's lot is a hard one. Our path is not bright, but we do not look for our reward here.

A. M. Stewart was the next to deliver an address in response to the address of welcome. He spoke in part as follows:

"I assume it a great privilege to stand here at the gate-way of Mexico and address you. We thank you from the very depths of our heart, for the many courtesies already extended. The people from our section have traveled a great distance, the greater portion of which was through a desert country. Yes, we have traveled through enough country to make several times the distance of the 500 miles we have traveled was tiresome, but we would travel it again for the opportunity to be here. At first it seemed as if I were in a dream, to find a place so beautiful, with a desert country surrounding it."

A very beautiful song by the El Paso Girls' club was well received.

Miss Mabel Montgomery next read a paper on the seven w's: woe, woe, woe, woe, woe, woe, woe.

A recitation by Miss Saimah McCaully, of Sweetwater, Texas, was freely applauded.

Miss Letta Trumbull sang a solo, after which the High School quartet sang several patriotic songs in which the audience joined.

The convention thereupon adjourned until two o'clock this afternoon.

Attention, Volunteers.

Dr. Yandell received the following in the delayed T. & P. mail this morning:

Dallas, April 26, 1898.

My dear doctor:

If you hear of any young men who desire to enlist as volunteers in U. S. army I would be glad if you would refer them to me. Call their attention to my note in the Dallas News of this date. Your kindness will greatly oblige Yours truly

THOS. SCURRY

Col. Scurry is the man who made the Houston Light Guards famous and was wired by General Mabry on the 25th, asking how soon he could raise a company of 75 men, to which he replied "five days." Dr. Yandell wired him night of 27th inst., and has had no reply, which he thinks is because Col. Scurry thought the above note would explain. Dr. Yandell wired again this morning: "How many men will you take? Answer in a quick way. Mabry is to be made colonel of the Texas Infantry Volunteers and Dr. Yandell believes that the general will take Scurry's company in his regiment as Scurry's superior as an officer is nowhere to be found. The First Texas will be more likely to go to Cuba than any other regiment."

A Fatal Fall.

Robert Acheson, aged 41, a painter in the employ of the W. H. Tuttle Paint company, fell from a ladder while at work on J. H. Nations' Mesa avenue residence, and fractured the base of his skull on the cement sidewalk. He was knocked senseless, and died in ten minutes. The fall was only fourteen feet, but it was enough to kill any man falling head first.

The remains were removed to Russ's establishment, where the funeral will be held at 10:00 a. m., Sunday; burial will be in the Painter's plot at Concordia cemetery. As the deceased was a member of the K. M. C. A., San Francisco, Secretary Sloane of this city will conduct the funeral exercises. Acheson came from the coast, and with his little daughter, arrived today to the painter's union, and took up residence on San Antonio street. He was originally from Buffalo, N. Y., and he was planning to send his wife and children to his parents to rear, he having separated from his wife. She resumed her maiden name of Grey, and is living on Eddy street in San Francisco.

A number of ladies have interested themselves in the child, who is at present in care of the Painter's union, and she will probably be sent to her grandparents as her father originally intended.

Isaac Ivan W. Heford left today for Fort Worth as delegate to the convention of Sons of Herman. From there he will leave for the Florida coast to catch the war movements.

John T. McCabe, stockholder in the Eagle Drug Mercantile Co. of Lordsburg, arrived today to contract for the erection of a large warehouse and dwelling at Lordsburg.

A Maryland Regiment Rebels. The 4th Regiment, a Maryland National Guard has broken camp at Pimlico and returned to its army in Baltimore. It is reported they have rebelled because of dissatisfaction at not having been assigned to active service by General Wilmer, the Fifth being assigned to that honor.
